History

Omar was once a soldier from Redania, serving as commander who is known for his professionalism and anger issues. He found pleasure in fighting his opponents and inflicting pain on others but mainly nonhumans, there is not much information on why he despises nonhumans but it is believed he hates them for being different from him and He also has a history of hating magical beings like Witchers and Mages and often compare them to nonhumans. Later in his life he decided to become a bounty hunter but instead of hunting criminals he hunts nonhumans and mages because of this his name and existence would hunt the dreams of nonhumans who fear him and his wraith, he was hired by many individuals to kill nonhumans and mages and he was payed a lot of coin for doing so. despite having a love for violence, he always takes certain items from his victims as proof of their deaths and his way of remembering them for satisfying his violent taste, he was known and feared for doing this.

Relations to King Demavend III

Omar was hired by Demavend a few times for hunting elves, dwarfs and mages that he disliked, later he was hired to root out some Scoia'tael and some of their commanders. Many of the Scoia'tael tried to take Omar's life but never succeed do to his powerful swordsmanship skills and knowing every move that Scoia'tael makes.

Later on, he was invited by Demavend to persecute the nonhumans and was a part of the many pogroms that was active during that time, he even gained 50 ducats for every Scoia'tael head he can find. He would often referred Demavend as a friend do to their trust in one other, cruelty and extreme opinions of nonhumans and mages Omar was even invited to dine with Demavend and his guest and even give advices to each other.

When Demavend was assassinated by Letho of Gulet, Omar was angered by this outcome and entirely believed that the nonhumans were responsible for this and went to find the assassin, this outcome would increase his hatred for nonhumans. A few months later Omar is hired by King Henselt to be his bodyguard, He was very suspicious of Saskia he was very open on how much he dislikes her views and goals.
